

Chris Spaidal

UX/UI Designer

Education

Bachelor of Industrial Design (Honors)

- Class of 2014
- Ottawa, ON, Canada
- Teron Industrial Design Award

Things I Do

Mobile & Web Wire framing

Storyboarding/Personal Development

User Research & Testing

Ideation through sketching

2D/3D rendering

Product Prototyping

Agile Development Methodology

Computer Skills

Adobe CC

HTML5

CSS3

Solidworks 3d CAD

Balsamiq & wire framing tools

Interests

In his free time, Chris stays busy by cycling, snowboarding, traveling, writing music and exploring local culinary trends in Vancouver.

User Experience Designer

Oct 2014 - July 2016

- Responsible for UX, UI, visual design and branding
- Worked directly with clients on weekly design deliverables
- Represented the design team on daily scrum reviews
- Tested, filed, ensured the resolution of bugs
- Designed and developed client websites (HTML5, CSS3, Wordpress)
- Team collaboration using an Agile development methodology

POWERSTICK.COM

Industrial Design Intern

April 2014 - Sept 2014

- Responsible for the design, prototyping, and development of new Powerstick products.
- Created marketing and branding materials (print and web content)
- Worked closely with engineering partners to ensure product success.

Building Materials Associate

August 2009 - April 2014

- Custom garage/deck/backyard designs and material quotes.
- Held one-on-one customer workshops and design meetings.
- Pro-desk customer service.
- Recipient of the Home Depot Platinum Employee Award